

Craig Diamond

Associate Marriage and Family Therapist – No. AMFT140971

Contact

2328 Amity Street
San Diego, CA
310.963.4155
craig@diamondcreative.com

Education

Pacifica Graduate Institute
Carpinteria, CA
MA in Counseling Psychology
2013 | GPA 3.97

U.C. Berkeley
Berkeley, CA
BA in History
1991

Key Skills

Drug and Alcohol Counseling
Groups

Objective

To develop clinical skills and experience by providing supervised individual and group clinical therapy services to clients to maintain or restore the highest level of functioning.

Experience

APRIL 2015 - MARCH 2017

Associate Marriage and Family Therapist

Casa Palmera, Del Mar CA | Hours: 624

Worked in a dynamic multidisciplinary team providing treatment services to residential patients according to the Clinical Model to always ensure the highest level of clinical quality.

Key responsibilities:

- Leading psychoeducational and process-oriented therapy groups (i.e. DBT, 12 Step, Stages of Change, Music)
- Establishing therapeutic rapport with patients
- Ensuring patient safety, providing milieu interventions
- Ensuring accurate clinical documentation
- Participating in weekly supervision

JUNE 2011 – FEBRUARY 2013

Graduate Student Mental Health Counselor

Salvation Army, San Diego CA | Hours: 547

Provided direct individual and group counseling for residents.

Key responsibilities

- Conduct individual and group counseling with residents.
- Participate in weekly supervision.
- Participate in assessments and Care Plans
- Document all services in the required software.